

Dear YFACTOR Parent,

June 2007

Summer vacation has arrived. YFACTOR has been busy the last two months and I see no slowing down in the near future. Once again, I solicit your help in getting your youth to ELEVATION on Friday nights. We need more participation and I am looking to the parents to help push in the right direction.

Here are the details for two very important events coming up this summer.

Youth Camp: July 16th – 19th

Youth camp is a great place for your young person to have a deep encounter with God. Signups have already started and the excitement is high. The cost will be $140.00 per person. Transportation will be provided to and from the camp. Included with this letter are all the details you need. You can pay for this event by credit card now at www.yfactoronline.com/purchase

SFC, MEGA MACH 2007: August 3rd – 6-9pm

Mega March 2007 is upon us as well. Last year we had an awesome time at Clement park (except the rain) walking, running, biking, skating, jogging, blading, etc... This year we will do the same. This will be awesome time for everyone at Landmark. Bring out the whole family and together we can do something great for Missions around the world. You can donate online now at www.yfactoronline.com/donate

Please contact me with any questions.

This letter will be available online for future reference at www.yfactoronline.com/parents

Yours for an awesome youth program,

Jonathan Moran
