

Dear YFACTOR Parent,

November 2007

The Holidays are here. I hope your family is doing well. I am happy about the progress we made this year at YFACTOR. Small Groups were initiated in January and the youth have responded with excitement and a high level of participation. This year we also had the most kids attend youth camp since I have been YP (youth pastor). YFACTOR made up 50% of all campers. We also had a wonderful SHIFT conference. Eight brand new young people received the Holy Ghost and two were baptized. We have seen growth at ELEVATION because of SHIFT. Your kids stirred up some deep prayer and consecration and it is evident that their lives were changed. These are just a few of the highlights. There is such a unity among the youth right now and it is an answer to prayer. Thank you so much for empowering your kids to be involved. Thanks for making the sacrifice to get them to ELEVATION every Friday. It is making a difference in their lives.

Here are the details for Youth Convention 2007.
